ill be very honest i thought it was going to be good but i was wrong, good concept but not worth the 7 pound!! Improved and more fun to play around with, have to be honest my previous review was a bit too harsh.. Getting there, although the dev has a fetish for copying other racing titles, first forza 5, now fh2 with the game cover. Honestly, Not a bad game. However releasing to early seem to have ruined this game, I took a gamble on it as its 50% off and I kinda like it. Defiantly needs that multiplayer mode and more cars and maps ofc.

It takes a while to get a hang of it but after playing for 8 Minutes i decided im well equipped to write this review. Love the tuning thats available and made this game for me. Multiplayer mode and more cars and tracks!!

Bugs

- Veyron on any course will not work for me. Great game I don't know why it is getting so many negative reviews is still a WIP so don't be too harsh.. Funny, if you like wtf bugs, the game is great and really fun and has a lot of potential. the only problem is the down sifter does not work for me other than that its a great game.. I don't recomend this game to anyone the only reason I got it was because of a copon that was like 90% off so i paid 1$

- very bad graphics
- not many cars
- no game mods
- no online
- bad physics

and the list can go on for days. I don't know what everyone's going on about. Maybe they're in a bad mood or somethin'. Where I'm from, we give a game a gosh darn go at it before we criticize! It says "Early Access" for a reason, people!!! Which means, the durn game isn't done yet. So give it some time. Do you criticize the caterpillar for not taking flight??? Exactly.

But in all seriousness, please don't buy this at full price. As much as I love this game for a good goof or two, and as much as I respect the developer for gaving a good sense of humor and wish him the best, at its present state, this game is a dud guys. No offense, Lucas. Big proprs, respect ya. Just tellin' it like it is. I'm a simple man with simple tastes and large dreams.

Happy Easter everybody.
